GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

Ministry of Law, Justice and Company Affairs

(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 2nd September, 1981/
Bhadra 11, 1903 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 2nd September, 1981, and is hereby published for general information:—

THE ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES (SPECIAL PROVISIONS) ACT, 1981

No. 18 of 1981

2nd September, 1981.

An Act to make certain special provisions by way of amendments to the Essential Commodities Act, 1955, for a temporary period for dealing more effectively with persons indulging in hoarding and blackmarketing of, and profiteering in, essential commodities and with the evil of vicious inflationary prices and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

WHEREAS for ensuring the availability of essential commodities at fair prices, it is necessary to curb the hoarding and blackmarketing of, and profiteering in, such commodities;

AND WHEREAS for dealing more effectively with persons indulging in such anti-social activities and the evil of vicious inflationary prices, it is necessary to make certain special provisions by way of amendments to the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955), for a period of five years;

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, commencement and duration.—(1) This Act may be called the Essential Commodities (Special Provisions) Act, 1981.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different States.

(3) It shall cease to have effect on the expiry of five years from the date of commencement of this Act except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such cesser of operation of this Act, and section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), shall apply upon such cesser of operation of this Act as if it had then been repealed by a Central Act.

(4) References in this Act to the commencement of this Act and to the continuance in force of this Act shall be construed in relation to each State as references, respectively, to the coming into force of this Act in that State and to the continuance in force of this Act in that State.

2. During the continuance in force of this Act, the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 Act 10 of 1955 to have effect subject to certain special provisions for a temporary period. (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in sections 3 to 11:

Provided that the amendments specified in sections 7 to 11 shall not apply, to, or in relation to, any offence under the principal Act committed before the commencement of this Act and the provisions of the principal Act shall apply to, and in relation to, such offence as if those amendments had not been made.

3. Amendment of section 2.—In section 2 of the principal Act,—

(a) clause (ia) shall be re-numbered as clause (iia), and before clause (iia), as so re-numbered, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

'(ia) "Code" means the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974);'; and

(b) after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(f) words and expressions used but not defined in this Act and defined in the Code shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Code.".

4. Amendment of section 6A.—In section 6A of the principal Act, for the proviso to sub-section (2) the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—.

"Provided that in the case of any such essential commodity the retail sale price whereof has been fixed by the Central Government or a State Government under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, the Collector may, for its equitable distribution and availabity at fair prices, order the same to be sold through fair price shops at the price so fixed.".

5. Amendment of section 6C.—In section 6C of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), for the words "any judical authority appointed by the State Government concerned and the judicial authority", the words "the State Government concerned and the State Government", shall be substituted;

(b) in sub-section (2), for the words "such judicial authority", the words "the State Government" shall be substituted.

6. Amendment of section 6E.—In section 6E of the principal Act,—

(a) for the words, figure and letter "the judicial authority appointed under section 6C", the words, figure and letter "the State Government concerned under section 6C" shall be substituted;

(b) for the words "any other court, tribunal or authority", the words "any court, tribunal or other authority" shall be substituted.

7. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), the proviso to sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) shall be omitted;

(b) the proviso to sub-section (2) shall be omitted;

(c) the proviso to sub-section (2A) shall be omitted;

(d) sub-section (2B) shall be omitted.

8. Amendment of section 8.—To section 8 of the principal Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that where a person has abetted the contravention of any order for the purpose of procuring any essential commodity of the nature mentioned in sub-clause (iva) or sub-clause (v) of clause (a) of section 2 for his own use or for the use of any member of his family or for the use of any person dependent on him, and not for the purpose of carrying on any business or trade in such essential commodity, the court may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 7 and for reasons to be mentioned in the judgment, impose a sentence of fine only.".

9. Amendment of section 10A.—In section 10A of the principal Act, after the word "cognizable", the words "and non-bailable" shall be inserted.

10. Omission of section 12.—Section 12 of the principal Act shall be omitted.

11. Substitution of new sections for section 12A.—For section 12A of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

'12A. Constitution of Special Courts.—(1) The State Government may, for the purpose of providing speedy trial of the offences under this Act, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute as many Special Courts as may be necessary for such area or areas as may be specified in the notification.

(2) A Special Court shall consist of a single judge who shall be appointed by the High Court upon a request made by the State Government.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, the word "appoint" shall have the meaning given to it in the Explanation to section 9 of the Code.

(3) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a judge of a Special Court unless—

(a) he is qualified for appointment as a judge of a High Court, or

(b) he has, for a period of not less than one year, been a Sessions Judge or an Additional Sessions Judge.

12AA. Offences triable by Special Courts.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code,—

(a) all offences under this Act shall be triable only by the Special Court constituted for the area in which the offence has been committed or where there are more Special Courts than one for such area, by such one of them as may be specified in this behalf by the High Court;

(b) where a person accused of or suspected of the commission of an offence under this Act is forwarded to a Magistrate under sub-section (2) or sub-section (2A) of section 167 of the Code, such Magistrate may authorise the detention of such person in such custody as he thinks fit for a period not exceeding fifteen days in the whole where such Magistrate is a Judicial Magistrate and seven days in the whole where such Magistrate is an Executive Magistrate:

Provided that where such Magistrate considers—

(i) when such person is forwarded to him as aforesaid; or

(ii) upon or at any time before the expiry of the period of detention authorised by him;

that the detention of such person is unnecessary, he may, if he is satisfied that the case falls under the proviso to section 8, order the release of such person on bail and if he is not so satisfied, he shall order such person to forwarded to the Special Court having jurisdiction;

(c) the Special Court may, subject to the provisions of clause (d) of this sub-section, exercise, in relation to the person forwarded to it under clause (b), the same power which a Magistrate having jurisdiction to try a case may exercise under section 167 of the Code in relation to an accused person in such case who has been forwarded to him under that section;

(d) save as aforesaid no person accused of or suspected of the commission of an offence under this Act shall be released on bail by any court other than a Special Court or the High Court:

Provided that a Special Court shall not release any such person on bail—

(i) without giving the prosecution an opportunity to oppose the application for such release unless the Special Court, for reasons to be recorded in writing is of opinion that it is not practicable to give such opportunity; and

(ii) where the prosecution opposes the application, if the Special Court is satisfied that there appear reasonable grounds for believing that he has been guilty of the offences concerned:

Provided further that the Special Court may direct that any such person may be released on bail if he is under the age of sixteen years or is a woman or is a sick or infirm person, or if the Special Court is satisfied that it is just and proper so to do for any other special reason to be recorded in writing;

(e) a Special Court may, upon a persual of police report of the facts constituting an offence under his Act take cognizance of that offence without the accused being committed to it for trial;

(f) all offences under this Act shall be tried in a summary way and the provisions of sections 262 to 265 (both inclusive) of the Code shall, as far as may be, apply to such trial:

Provided that in the case of any conviction in a summary trial under this section, it shall be lawful for the Special Court to pass a sentence of imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

(2) When trying an offence under this Act, a Special Court may also try an offence other than an offence under this Act, with which the accused may, under the Code, be charged at the same trial:

Provided that such other offence is, under any other law for the time being in force, triable in a summary way:

Provided further that in the case of any conviction for such other offence in such trial, it shall not be lawful for the Special Court to pass a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding the term provided for conviction in a summary trial under such other law.

(3) A Special Court may, with a view to obtaining the evidence of any person suspected to have been directly or indirectly concerned in, or privy to, an offence under his Act, tender a pardon to such person on condition of his making a full and true disclosure of the whole circumstances within his knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person concerned whether as principal or abettor in the commission thereof and any pardon so tendered shall, for the purposes of section 308 of the Code, be deemed to have been tendered under section 307 thereof.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect the special powers of the High Court regarding bail under section 439 of the Code and the High Court may exercise such powers including the power under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of that section as if the reference to "Magistrate" in that section included also a reference to a "Special Court" constituted under section 12A.

12AB. Appeal and revision.—The High Court may exercise, so far as may be applicable, all the powers conferred by Chapters XXIX and XXX of the Code on a High Court, as if a Special Court within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court were a Court of Sessions trying cases within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court.

12AC. Application of Code to proceedings before a Special Court.—Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code (including the provisions as to bail and bonds) shall apply to the proceedings before a Special Court and for the purposes of the said provisions, the Special Court shall be deemed to be a Court of Sessions and the person conducting a prosecution before a Special Court, shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor.'.

NOTIFICATION

No. 135|SSA1|82|Home. Dated, Trivandrum, 7th January, 1982.

S. R. O. No. 38|82.—Whereas the District Magistrate, Alleppey, has as per Proceedings No. P7-78159|81 dated the 10th November, 1981, inter-alia made an order under sub-section (1) of section 23 of the Kerala Police Act, 1960 (5 of 1961) prohibiting any procession or public assembly in the whole area falling under Moncombu Vadakkekara in Pulincunnu Village and Moncombu Thekkekara in Champakulam Village of Kuttanad Taluk;

And Whereas the said order as subsequently extended by the Government by notifications published from time to time and lastly by notification No. 65051|SSA1|81|Home dated the 24th December, 1981, published as S. R. O. No. 1523|81 in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1003 dated the 24th December, 1981 is due to expire at 6 p. m. on the 9th day of January, 1982;

And whereas the Government of Kerala consider that for the preservation of public peace it is necessary that the said order shall continue to remain in force;

33/131/MC

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (2) of section 23 of the Kerala Police Act, 1960. (5 of 1961), the Government of Kerala hereby direct that the said order shall remain in force for a further period of 15 days with effect on and from 6 p.m. on the 9th day of January, 1982.

By order of the Governor,

K. V. VIDYADHARAN,

Special Secretary to Government.

Explanatory Note

It has been reported to Government that the situation in the area falling under Moncombu Vadakkekara in Pulincunnu Village and Moncombu Thekkekara in Champakulam Village of Kuttanad Taluk consequent on the attack of the Marxist Party Office at Moncombu and the murder of a sympathiser of the Communist Party of India (Marxist) by a group of R. S. S. workers on 10-11-1981 is still tense and explosive and one more clash in the neighbouring area had occurred on 2-1-1982 and it is necessary to continue the prohibitory order for the preservation of public peace in the area. Government are convinced that the prohibitory order has to be continued. Hence this notification.
This is not part of the notification but is intended to indicate its general purport.
